

Southern Bride[®]

SUMMER/FALL 2014

INSPIRING
Trends & Traditions

Romantic
TRAVEL

Dawn Phillips & Keith Morhet

26 October 2013 Gatlinburg, Tennessee PHOTOGRAPHER R. T. Photography

Dawn Phillips and Keith Morhet were married October 26, 2013 in a destination wedding at the Little Log Wedding Chapel in Gatlinburg, Tennessee surrounded by 105 friends and family who traveled from near and far. The bride is the daughter of Lisa Phillips and Jim Donovan of Simpsonville, Kentucky and Ken Phillips of Shelbyville, Kentucky. The groom is the son of Keith and Toni Morhet of Benton, Illinois. The bride is a graduate of Faces by Kathy Moberly Studio of Makeup Design and Keith is a graduate of Murray State University with a degree in advertising. A mountaintop chalet was transformed into the reception space where guests enjoyed a buffet of southern fried chicken and all the trimmings. Guests were able to take in the breathtaking mountain views filled with gorgeous fall foliage and crisp mountain air on the amazing two story deck during the twilight reception. Drinks were served in mason jars and dancing took place throughout the evening. The newlyweds honeymooned at the Secrets Resorts Maroma Beach in Riviera Maya, Mexico.